

COUNCIL OF DEFENSE
FAVORS FOOD CARDS

Condemns Evasions of Hoover Regulations—Will Open Headquarters.

Conditions heretofore concerning the observance of food regulations formed the animus of discussion Tuesday afternoon at the meeting of the local women's committee, Council of Defense. How one Chattanooga housewife secured many more pounds of sugar than the law allows by merely purchasing two-pound packages from half a dozen grocers and how other of the food restrictions are evaded brought the membership unanimously to the conclusion that it should come to pass that food cards are a necessity in order to equalize distribution and the committee will stand squarely with the government.

The meeting was held in the directors' room of the Volunteer State Life Insurance company, pending possession of the council's new headquarters. Mrs. Charles E. Hyde presided.

Discussion also centered on the purposes and appointment of the new suite or rooms opposite the Georgia avenue entrance, which will serve as the headquarters for all war work done in the section. Plans for the appointment of the site for headquarters secured by Mrs. C. C. Nottingham and under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. E. Ruck resulted in the decision to provide desk space for the different organizations, install telephone, janitor and light service and employ a lady to be constantly in charge.

Formal Opening.
It was decided at Wednesday's meeting to have a patriotic demonstration at headquarters a day next week, the event to mark the formal opening of the room. The honor guests of the occasion will be the Chattanooga fathers of sons in the army. Plans for a patriotic program are already under way.

Mrs. Joe Clift, chairman of the child welfare committee, will begin her work of tabulating shortly, using the same organization employed in the registration of Chattanooga women.

Young children must be weighed, measured and examined according to government regulations, somewhat after the plan in vogue during the baby campaign. It is probable that the schoolhouses will be used for the purpose. A newspaper propaganda is considered essential. The house-to-house canvass will be conducted immediately.

Associated with Mrs. Clift will be Miss Ernestine Noa, Mrs. Nathan Bachman, Mrs. M. M. Allison, Mrs. J. W. Johnson, Mrs. Lucius Mansfield and others.

JEWISH WELFARE BOARD
GIVES MUSICAL PROGRAM

An interesting program was given at the recruiting depot on Signal hill, Camp Forrest, Tuesday evening by a number of the ladies from the city under the auspices of the Jewish welfare board. Many musical numbers featured the program, consisting of vocal solos, recitations, readings, etc., also instrumental music. Miss Agatha Leventhal was the pianist.

The Jewish welfare board has added another member to its staff, Arthur Kling, of Louisville, Ky., who, together with Charles Mantinband, field representative, is keeping the board alive and lively at Fort Oglethorpe. The Jewish welfare board has a little hostess house at Clive Center and extends an invitation to all who visit the park.

FINE BABY BOY COMES TO BRIGHTEN RENEGAR HOME

Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Renegar, of North Chattanooga, a son, who has been named William Francis Renegar. The youngster was named for William Francis McMinn, formerly of The News composing room force, who is now "over there" doing his bit to make the world safe for democracy.

JUNIOR HIGH RED CROSS TO GIVE DANCE THURSDAY

The Junior Red Cross society of the Junior High school will entertain a dance at the Greenleaf orchestra, Mrs. Mary Martin, chairman, and Mrs. H. C. Ludlow, in charge of arrangements. A special invitation has been extended to all men of the army post.

TRAVELERS' AID COMMITTEE
MEETS FRIDAY AT Y. W. C. A.

The travelers' aid committee of the Y. W. C. A. will meet at the building Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Mrs. C. W. Wheland is chairman of the committee.

GOODMAN HEIR ARRIVES AT ERLANGER HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. Jay S. Goodman are receiving congratulations over the birth of a son, who arrived this morning at Erlanger hospital. The name bestowed

MASON'S JARS—

Pints 70c
Quarts 85c
Half gallon $1.00

BALL "IDEAL" JARS—

Pints 75c
Quarts 90c
Half gallon $1.10

Small size "Pet" Milk 5c Lemons, per dozen 40c

The 26 Red Stores

United States Food Administration
License No. C-24792

FIRST AID

on washday—call in GRANDMA! No more scrubbing. GRANDMA just drives the dirt out. It is powdered. Glorious cleansing suds in a jiffy.

Ask Your Grocer For It

Silken Suit for War Bride

(By Betty Brown.)

War brides are the center of feminine society these days and careful thought is being given their proper costume. Charm without extravagance is the watchword of their costuming. When they appear at camps and training stations it is as essential to look well as it is to appear elegant in dress.

This fascinating suit for a bride is of tricot silk in beige, the soft light silk requiring no trimming except for a few drop-stitch weaves and ivory buttons.

London and Paris women are wearing "curfew hats"—demure bonnets suited to the early evening hours—demanded by the air-raid signals for "lights out." Fur-trimmed coats of early New England, when the curfew was the event of the evening, suggest pointed hats, buckled shoes and long capes as the proper curfew caper for American girls.

upon the baby is Paul Fisher Goodman, after his paternal grandfather, who was Miss Pauline Fisher before becoming Mrs. H. Goodman.

Mrs. Jay Goodman was formerly Miss Hazel Atlas, of Portsmouth, O.

EVERYBODY HANG OUT A FRENCH FLAG SUNDAY

Honor French Independence

Day, Suggests President of Service League.

A pretty and patriotic suggestion, in recognition of the French Independence day, has been made by Mrs. D. P. Montague, president of the National League for Women's service. This is that everybody hang out a French flag on that day. The anniversary falls on Sunday, July 14, and this silent way of doing homage to France would seem most appropriate and dignified. If every family would respond to this suggestion the public would be forcibly reminded of the day, and Chattanooga and the Lookout Mountain club, either just before or after the 14th, but everybody is so busy that it was necessarily postponed and a parade or pageant was out of the question, because much time is given in this way to the departing soldiers, heads would not be considered altogether dignified, as the anniversary falls on Sunday.

MRS. C. A. MITCHELL FALLS AND FRACTURES WRIST

News has been received in the city from LaFayette, Ga., that Mrs. C. A. Mitchell, mother of Mrs. Caroline Arnold, and Mrs. Paul D. Wright, a former resident of Chattanooga, had fallen, sustaining a severe fracture of the wrist. Mrs. Mitchell, who is of advanced age, is bearing the misfortune bravely. The accident occurred upon the veranda of her LaFayette home, when she moved suddenly aside to avoid stepping upon a kitten.

Evangeline Chapter, No. 48, Order Eastern Star will meet tonight at Mountain City hall. Degree work will be conferred and a social hour held following the program.Lawrence Springer, of North Chattanooga, who went to Knoxville last week to attend the mechanical training school, has been made first-class sergeant. He was with the postoffice before enlisting. Mrs. Springer will go to Knoxville during his period of training.H. P. RED CROSS AUXILIARY HOLDS RALLY TOMORROW

Gen. Whitaker and Dr. McCallie to Deliver Addresses—Music by Greenleaf Band.

Under the auspices of the Highland Park Red Cross auxiliary a big Red Cross rally will be held Friday evening at the M. E. church, south corner of Beech street and Union avenue. Appropriate addresses are to be delivered by Atty.-Gen. M. N. Whitaker and Dr. S. McCallie, chairman of the local Red Cross. Music will be furnished by the Camp Greenleaf band. There will also be other musical features.

The purpose of the rally, of which Mrs. W. D. Love is chairman, is to arouse interest in the Highland Park Red Cross auxiliary. This organization now has 155 members, and efforts are being made to increase the membership to 200. The workrooms were opened some time ago, and members of the auxiliary have already completed a number of garments. Mrs. H. H. Hicks, president of the auxiliary, will preside over the rally Friday evening.

Following the meeting, refreshments will be served and the band will play. Union avenue for a distance of one block is to be roped off so that traffic cannot pass through, and this block illuminated with electric lights. The refreshment booths will be stationed at various points in the block.

U. D. C. MAY CONSIDER
TRANSPORTATION DRIVE

Desire That All Veterans May Go to Annual Reunion at Tulsa, Okla.

It is quite possible that a movement will be put on foot by the Gen. A. P. Stewart chapter, U. D. C., for a "Button Day," or some other means of conducting a drive to raise funds to send the Confederate veterans to the annual reunion, which is to be held this year at Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 27.

Every year there are some who have dropped out of the rank and file, and a smaller number to attend than the former year. It is expected that the children of the Confederacy and all of the other chapters will affiliate with the movement, in case the Gen. A. P. Stewart chapter takes the initiative. Atlanta is having a drive of this kind today.

No one body of women has responded more liberally to all of the recent calls of the war than the U. D. C. in the early days of the war, and in many ways giving unsparingly of their time. Now it is more than likely that the project will be a fund for sending the veterans to the reunion may be entertained.

SOCIETY PERSONALS

Mrs. J. T. Owens and little son have gone to Knoxville, being called there by the illness and death of her mother.

Mrs. Raleigh Crumbliss and little daughter are spending several weeks with Mrs. J. H. Wann and Mrs. Paul Wann at Wright's Mineral springs.

Miss Ellen Converse will go to Clemson, S. C. Friday, where she has accepted a position in the government experimental station.

J. E. Price has returned from Lenoir City, Tenn., and is with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Converse in Highland park.

Mrs. R. E. Houston and little son are visiting relatives in Indiana.

Miss Lottie Telford, of Toronto, Canada, will come next week to visit her aunt, Mrs. A. J. Gahagan.

Miss Delta Fisher has returned from Columbia, S. C., where she has been visiting Capt. and Mrs. Duncan C. Pell, Jr.

Miss Ruth McFarland, who has been attending the City normal, will go to Cythiana, Ky., Wednesday, where she will spend the remainder of the summer with friends and relatives.

Rev. Almon Jomard, who has been assisting Chaplain J. C. Norris in his work at Fort Oglethorpe under the war commission of the Episcopal church, returned to his church at Johnson City today. He will return about the first of August to resume duties at the camp.

Miss Mary Fairbanks, of Dalton, was the guest recently of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fairbanks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Longley and family are spending the summer with relatives at Loganport, Ind.

Mrs. Harry Cunningham and son, Jean, of Petersburg, Fla., are guests of her sister, Mrs. John Reynolds, in North Chattanooga.

Miss Grace Dodd has returned from Columbia college, New York. Mrs. W. Barrow and children, of New York, accompanied her home for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dodds.

Mrs. Mark K. Wilson, who is ill at Battle Creek sanitarium, Michigan, is reported as slowly improving.

Misses Mary and Josephine Buchanan have sold their home in North Chattanooga and will go to Louisville, Ky., to reside.

J. A. Fleming is spending this week in New York.

Mrs. Dume, of Middleboro, Ky., is the guest of Mrs. Margaret Lawton and the Misses Lawton.

Miss Isabelle Warrenfels is visiting relatives in Washington, D. C.

Herbert Huneke has returned to New York after a short visit to his parents, and Mrs. L. C. Huneke, in North Chattanooga. Mr. Huneke is a member of the navy.

Miss Vesta Ray has returned from a several weeks' stay in Cleveland, O.

Miss Ethelwyn Porter, extension secretary of the Y. W. C. A., has returned from a visit to friends in New York.

Mrs. H. L. Snyder will entertain at cards Friday at her home on Duncan avenue.

Mrs. E. H. Bowen and son, E. H. Bowen, Jr., have returned home from Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Newton motored to Atlanta Thursday for a visit of a few days.

Mrs. W. A. Jewell and little daughter Dorris, of St. Elmo, left Wednesday for an extended visit in the east.

Masters Alton and Charles Francis Smith left this week for Kingston to visit relatives and friends.

Miss Frances Pope is the guest of Mrs. W. D. Stephens in Nashville.

Karl Lehman has gone to Memphis to attend the all-south Christian Endeavor convention.

Mrs. J. Baker, of Atlanta, is visiting her mother, Mrs. H. L. Harker, in Highland Park.

Miss Beas Acree, of Clarksville, will come shortly to visit Mrs. W. E. Brock on Missionary ridge.

Mrs. W. J. Leaning Clark and daughter, Miss Ruth Clark, who have gone to visit Mrs. Clark's sister, on Vancouver island, will visit Alfred Clark, in training with the royal flying squad-

FRENCH AMBASSADOR PAYS TRIBUTE TO COOKE'S POEM, "MOTHERS OF FRANCE"

Testimony Before Coroner's
Jury Tends to Show Shooting
Was Justifiable.

A coroner's jury investigating the killing of Sergt. Stanley Imbroski, of Troop F, Eleventh Cavalry, by Policeman T. B. Baxter at Dalton, Ga., Tuesday night, recommended Wednesday night in its verdict that Baxter be held subject to further investigation by the grand jury. It was also recommended by the inquisitorial body that the policeman's bond be fixed at $1,000.

Shortly after the killing, a hearing was begun, but adjournment was taken until Wednesday morning at which time further evidence came to the attention of the investigating body. The hearing lasted throughout the day and was completed about 10:30 Wednesday night. It was around midnight before the jury, composed of H. L. Jarvis, W.
E. Wood, H. W. Horan, Sam Ellis,
Cleve Frazer and John T. Duncan, rendered a verdict. The jury found that Imbroski came to his death as the result of two gunshot wounds at the hands of Baxter. T. N. Peoples, the coroner, presided over the inquest.

Baxter had no difficulty in quickly arranging bond Thursday morning.

The grand jury does not meet until
the October term of court.

The correspondent of The News in the Georgia town stated that no action had been taken up to Thursday morning in regard to the police force connection of Baxter with the police force there.

Another important chapter to the matter was added Wednesday with the arrest of Tom Burgan, of Catoca county, Georgia, who was accused of selling whisky to the soldiers in the party of which Sergt. Imbroski was a member. He made bond in the sum of $1,000. Burgan drives a rent car and has a store in Catoca.

Several witnesses were examined during the hearing. One of these,
Private Hanson, was brought from the army post Wednesday night and testified that Imbroski was shot without provocation. The testimony of practically all the other witnesses, however, was that Imbroski had a gun on Baxter and that the shooting was justifiable. Hanson stated that Imbroski had a gun, but did not have it in his hand at the time of the shooting. The proof of this was not introduced, but was not introduced.

Eight soldiers made up the original party that journeyed to Dalton from the rifle range. Four of the khaki-clad men rode around in an automobile
and the other four remained together.
One of the four testified that he was so drunk he did not know what happened. Still another stated that he was on the street when Imbroski was shot down in a restaurant. According to additional proof, this soldier was in plans to be discharged from the army the next day. Two of the four soldiers were held from Tuesday night until Wednesday morning in order that they might be on hand to testify.

The News correspondent was informed by an army officer of Fort Oglethorpe that Imbroski had been in the army about six years and had made a good soldier. Imbroski was a native of Ohio, and was residing in Chickasaw county at the time of his enlistment. Officers of the Eleventh cavalry were on hand during the hearing.

Late Wednesday afternoon O'Don-ohue's ambulance brought the body of Imbroski from Dalton to Chattanooga, but no funeral arrangements have yet been announced.

SHIELDS HEADQUARTERS
ARE NOW OPEN IN CITY

Friends of Senator John K. Shields
this morning began a vigorous campaign for his reelection. A conference was held Wednesday afternoon in the office of Col. Ed. Watkins in the Hamilton National Bank building. Those attending the conference were: Col.
Ed. Watkins, J. H. E. H. Cummings, Ed.
Bass, Phil Shugart, W. T. Murray,
A. Fleming, E. H. Williams, Byron
Tatum, Judge B. D. McReynolds, Nick
P. Bush, Judge Nathan L. Bachman,
T. Pope Shipe, W. H. Cummings, H.
Voigt, Judge Joe V. Williams and J. R.
Volte. In addition, E. N. Hoston, of VanBuren county, was in attendance.

Mr. Shields' headquarters were opened this morning in the Batten hotel building at 1018 Georgia avenue, and they will be in charge of Harry Reed and J.
H. Etter.

It is understood that Senator Shields will have to remain at his post in Washington. Shields is generally well known for his ability and his little opportunity for any speech made by him. J. Frank White, of Claiborne county; T. A. Embrey, of Winchester, and Thomas N. Greer, of Shelbyville, are the state managers for the senior senator.

BRIDGMAN SEASICK ON
JOURNEY "OVER THERE"

Dewey Bridgman, of battery B, 114th field artillery, 30th division, American expeditionary force, has a distinct remembrance of seasickness on the trip across. Homo folk, he has received a letter from him, in which he said that all the boys were sick the first two or three days. He spoke of a service that was held on the boat and explained that Col. Lee was in charge of the service. The band, he wrote, played
"Nearer, My God, to Thee," then gave us "Back Home in Tennessee." Mrs.
W. S. Bridgman, the young man's mother, resides at 808 Cowart street.

FRENCH AMBASSADOR PAYS TRIBUTE TO
COOKE'S POEM, "MOTHERS OF FRANCE"

Testimony Before Coroner's
Jury Tends to Show Shooting
Was Justifiable.

A coroner's jury investigating the killing of Sergt. Stanley Imbroski, of Troop F, Eleventh Cavalry, by Policeman T. B. Baxter at Dalton, Ga., Tuesday night, recommended Wednesday
night in its verdict that Baxter be held
subject to further investigation by the grand jury. It was also recommended by the inquisitorial body that the po-
liceman's bond be fixed at $1,000.

Shortly after the killing, a hearing
was begun, but adjournment was taken
until Wednesday morning at which time further evidence came to the attention of the investigating body. The hearing lasted throughout the day and
was completed about 10:30 Wednesday
night. It was around midnight before the jury, composed of H. L. Jarvis, W.
E. Wood, H. W. Horan, Sam Ellis,
Cleve Frazer and John T. Duncan, rendered a verdict. The jury found
that Imbroski came to his death as the result of two gunshot wounds at the hands of Baxter. T. N. Peoples, the coroner, presided over the inquest.

Baxter had no difficulty in quickly
arranging bond Thursday morning.

The grand jury does not meet until
the October term of court.

The correspondent of The News in the Georgia town stated that no action had been taken up to Thursday morning in regard to the police force
connection of Baxter with the police force
there.

Another important chapter to the matter was added Wednesday with the
arrest of Tom Burgan, of Catoca county, Georgia, who was accused of
selling whisky to the soldiers in the party of which Sergt. Imbroski was a member. He made bond in the sum of $1,000. Burgan drives a rent car and has a store in Catoca.

Several witnesses were examined during the hearing. One of these,
Private Hanson, was brought from the army post Wednesday night and testified that Imbroski was shot without provocation. The testimony of practically all the other witnesses, however, was that Imbroski had a gun on Baxter and that the shooting was justifiable. Hanson stated that Imbroski had a gun, but did not have it
in his hand at the time of the shooting. The proof of this was not introduced, but was not introduced.

Eight soldiers made up the original
party that journeyed to Dalton from
the rifle range. Four of the khaki-
clad men rode around in an automobile
and the other four remained together.
One of the four testified that he was so drunk he did not know what happened. Still another stated that he was on the street when Imbroski was shot down in a restaurant. According to additional proof, this soldier was in
plans to be discharged from the army
the next day. Two of the four soldiers were held from Tuesday night until Wednesday morning in order that they might be
on hand to testify.

The News correspondent was informed by an army officer of Fort Oglethorpe that Imbroski had been in the army about six years and had made a good soldier. Imbroski was a native of Ohio, and was residing
in Chickasaw county at the time of his enlistment. Officers of the Eleventh cavalry were on hand during the hearing.

Late Wednesday afternoon O'Don-ohue's ambulance brought the body of Imbroski from Dalton to Chattanooga,
but no funeral arrangements have yet
been announced.

SHIELDS HEADQUARTERS
ARE NOW OPEN IN CITY

Friends of Senator John K. Shields
this morning began a vigorous campaign for his reelection. A conference was held Wednesday afternoon in the office of Col. Ed. Watkins in the Hamilton National Bank building. Those attending the conference were: Col.
Ed. Watkins, J. H. E. H. Cummings, Ed.
Bass, Phil Shugart, W. T. Murray,
A. Fleming, E. H. Williams, Byron
Tatum, Judge B. D. McReynolds, Nick
P. Bush, Judge Nathan L. Bachman,
T. Pope Shipe, W. H. Cummings, H.
Voigt, Judge Joe V. Williams and J. R.
Volte. In addition, E. N. Hoston, of VanBuren county, was in attendance.

Mr. Shields' headquarters were opened
this morning in the Batten hotel building at 1018 Georgia avenue, and they will be in charge of Harry Reed and J.
H. Etter.

It is understood that Senator Shields will have to remain at his post in Washington. Shields is generally well known for his ability and his little opportunity for any speech made by
him. J. Frank White, of Claiborne county; T. A. Embrey, of Winchester,
and Thomas N. Greer, of Shelbyville,
are the state managers for the senior senator.

BRIDGMAN SEASICK ON
JOURNEY "OVER THERE"

Dewey Bridgman, of battery B, 114th
field artillery, 30th division, American
expeditionary force, has a distinct remembrance of seasickness on the trip across. Homo folk, he has received a letter from him, in which he said that all the boys were sick the first two or three days. He spoke of a service that
was held on the boat and explained that Col. Lee was in charge of the service. The band, he wrote, played
"Nearer, My God, to Thee," then gave
us "Back Home in Tennessee." Mrs.
W. S. Bridgman, the young man's mother, resides at 808 Cowart street.

FRENCH AMBASSADOR PAYS TRIBUTE TO
COOKE'S POEM, "MOTHERS OF FRANCE"

Testimony Before Coroner's
Jury Tends to Show Shooting
Was Justifiable.

A coroner's jury investigating the killing of Sergt. Stanley Imbroski, of Troop F, Eleventh Cavalry, by Policeman T. B. Baxter at Dalton, Ga., Tuesday night, recommended Wednesday
night in its verdict that Baxter be held
subject to further investigation by the grand jury. It was also recommended by the inquisitorial body that the po-
liceman's bond be fixed at $1,000.

Shortly after the killing, a hearing
was begun, but adjournment was taken
until Wednesday morning at which time further evidence came to the attention of the investigating body. The hearing lasted throughout the day and
was completed about 10:30 Wednesday
night. It was around midnight before the jury, composed of H. L. Jarvis, W.
E. Wood, H. W. Horan, Sam Ellis,
Cleve Frazer and John T. Duncan, rendered a verdict. The jury found
that Imbroski came to his death as the result of two gunshot wounds at the hands of Baxter. T. N. Peoples, the coroner, presided over the inquest.

Baxter had no difficulty in quickly
arranging bond Thursday morning.

The grand jury does not meet until
the October term of court.

The correspondent of The News in
the Georgia town stated that no action had been taken up to Thursday morning in regard to the police force
connection of Baxter with the police force
there.

Another important chapter to the matter was added Wednesday with the
arrest of Tom Burgan, of Catoca
county, Georgia, who was accused of
selling whisky to the soldiers in the party of which Sergt. Imbroski was a member. He made bond in the sum of $1,000. Burgan drives a rent car and has a store in Catoca.

Several witnesses were examined during the hearing. One of these,
Private Hanson, was brought from the army post Wednesday night and testified that Imbroski was shot without provocation. The testimony of practically all the other witnesses, however, was that Imbroski had a gun on Baxter and that the shooting was justifiable. Hanson stated that Imbroski had a gun, but did not have it
in his hand at the time of the shooting. The proof of this was not introduced, but was not introduced.

Eight soldiers made up the original
party that journeyed to Dalton from
the rifle range. Four of the khaki-
clad men rode around in an automobile
and the other four remained together.
One of the four testified that he was so drunk he did not know what happened. Still another stated that he was on the street when Imbroski was shot down in a restaurant. According to additional proof, this soldier was in
plans to be discharged from the army
the next day. Two of the four soldiers were held from Tuesday night until Wednesday morning in order that they might be
on hand to testify.

The News correspondent was informed by an army officer of Fort Oglethorpe that Imbroski had been in the army about six years and had made a good soldier. Imbroski was a native of Ohio, and was residing
in Chickasaw county at the time of his enlistment. Officers of the Eleventh cavalry were on hand during the hearing.

Late Wednesday afternoon O'Don-ohue's ambulance brought the body of Imbroski from Dalton to Chattanooga,
but no funeral arrangements have yet
been announced.

SHIELDS HEADQUARTERS
ARE NOW OPEN IN CITY

Friends of Senator John K. Shields
this morning began a vigorous campaign for his reelection. A conference was held Wednesday afternoon in the office of Col. Ed. Watkins in the Hamilton National Bank building. Those attending the conference were: Col.
Ed. Watkins, J. H. E. H. Cummings, Ed.
Bass, Phil Shugart, W. T. Murray,
A. Fleming, E. H. Williams, Byron
Tatum, Judge B. D. McReynolds, Nick
P. Bush, Judge Nathan L. Bachman,
T. Pope Shipe, W. H. Cummings, H.
Voigt, Judge Joe V. Williams and J. R.
Volte. In addition, E. N. Hoston, of VanBuren county, was in attendance.

Mr. Shields' headquarters were opened
this morning in the Batten hotel building at 1018 Georgia avenue, and they will be in charge of Harry Reed and J.
H. Etter.

It is understood that Senator Shields
will have to remain at his post in Washington. Shields is generally well known for his ability and